

prominence during her lifetime (1821–1910) as the founder of Christian Science and was the first woman in the United States to found and lead a religion that became an international movement with members in 139 countries;

Whereas historians compare Mary Baker Eddy to 19th century women reformers like Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Susan B. Anthony, who took leadership roles at a time when women infrequently did so;

Whereas Mary Baker Eddy founded and served as the pastor of her own church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, and established a publishing organization that produces numerous publications, including "The Christian Science Monitor", an international daily newspaper that has won 7 Pulitzer Prizes;

Whereas in recognition of the numerous achievements of Mary Baker Eddy, the Women's National Hall of Fame inducted her into its membership in 1995 for having made "an indelible mark on society, religion, and journalism";

Whereas the Mary Baker Eddy Library, a facility of 81,000 square feet, provides a place for people to come together to explore ideas and offers on-site and online educational experiences, programs, and exhibits;

Whereas the Mary Baker Eddy Collections consist of more than 100,000 documents, artifacts, photographs, and other media that chronicle the development of Mary Baker Eddy's ideas and offer an unequalled resource to scholars in women's history and mind-body medicine;

Whereas the Library's initiative to make the previously unpublished materials in the Mary Baker Eddy Collections available to the public is exemplary of, and in full accord with, the intent of the provisions of title 17, United States Code, relating to the publication of previously unpublished materials; and

Whereas the Mary Baker Eddy Library will establish an Institute for the Rediscovery and Preservation of the History of Women in Seneca Falls, New York, the birthplace of the first Women's Rights Convention, in order to showcase new research on the forgotten histories of women and offer educational programs for students: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That Congress recognizes and commends—

(1) Mary Baker Eddy for her outstanding achievements and contributions, particularly her contributions to the advancement of women's rights as a public figure and role model in the early stages of the women's rights movement; and

(2) the Mary Baker Eddy Library for the Betterment of Humanity, which will open to the public on September 29, 2002.

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. President, it is a privilege to submit, on behalf of myself, Senator CLINTON and Senator HUTCHISON, a concurrent resolution to recognize the achievements of Mary Baker Eddy and the opening of the Mary Baker Eddy Library for the Betterment of Humanity. The Library, which officially opens to the public on September 29, will provide public access to the Mary Baker Eddy papers, one of the largest collections of primary source material by and about an American woman.

The Library will provide invaluable insight to Mary Baker Eddy's remarkable life and serve as an important resource for scholars, researchers and the public. Its mission will sustain her powerful legacy that ideas can inspire individuals, empower them and transform their lives.

The Mary Baker Eddy Library, a facility encompassing over 80,000 square feet, will be a dynamic meeting place for people to explore ideas through its on-site and on-line educational experiences, programs and exhibits. So, too, its unique Mapparium will once again be available to visitors to the Library. The collections consist of over 100,000 documents, artifacts, photographs and other media that chronicle the development of Mary Baker Eddy's ideas and offer an unparalleled resource for scholars in women's history, spirituality and journalism.

The Library's effort to release previously unpublished materials in the Mary Baker Eddy Collections to the public will enrich our understanding of her extraordinary achievements. In conjunction with this facility in Boston, the Library will also establish an Institute for the Rediscovery and Preservation of the History of Women in Seneca Falls, New York, the birthplace of the first Women's Rights Convention, in order to showcase research on the forgotten histories of women and offer a wide range of educational programs for students.

I am pleased to submit this resolution to recognize this outstanding woman and the richness of her accomplishments. I would also like to congratulate Virginia Harris for her efforts to ensure that the Mary Baker Eddy Library became a reality and for her tireless energy and visionary leadership as Chairman of the Board of the Christian Science Church.
